

TRUTH TRIUMPHANT
THE BOOK OF DANIEL

Dr. J.G. Sahl

Daniel 11

"The Kings of Greece"

The Rise and Fall of Alexander the Great

Daniel 11:3-4

1. His invasion of Persia was largely a retaliation to the attack of Xerxes.
2. His conquest of the ancient world took only 5 years.
3. He died a premature death in his imperial capital, Babylon in 323 BC.
4. His empire was divided between his four generals
 - a. Cassander ruled Macedonia - Greece.
 - b. Lysimachus ruled Thrace - Asia Minor.
 - c. Seleucus ruled the rest of Asia except for Palestine.
 - d. Ptolemy ruled Egypt and Palestine.

The Kings of the North (Seleucids) and of the South (Ptolemies)

North	Reign	Scripture	Reign	South
Seleucus I Nicator	312-281	11:5	323-285	Ptolemy I Soter
Antiochus I Soter	281-262	11:6	285-246	Ptolemy II Philadelpia
Antiochus II Theos	262-246	11:6
Seleucus II Callinicus	246-227	11:7-9	246-221	Ptolemy III Euergetes
Seleucus III Soter	227-223	11:10
		11:11-12	221-204	Ptolemy IV Philapator
Antiochus III The Great	223-187	11:13-19	204-181	Ptolemy V Epiphanes
Seleucus IV Philopator	187-176	11:20
		11:25	181-145	Ptolemy VI Philometer

Antiochus IV Epiphanes	176-163	11:21-32
---------------------------------------	----------------	-----------------	--	--